WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telcon to President Francois Mitterrand of France
(U)

PARTICIPANTS: The President
President Francois Mitterrand
Adrian Basora, NSC Staff (Notetaker)
Alec Toumayan, Interpreter

DATE, TIME: October 11, 1990, 5:25-5:38 p.m.
AND PLACE: The Oval Office

The President: Francois! (U)

President Mitterrand: Good evening once again. I have looked over the text, in English. I have two points. One is on the paragraph that requests the Secretary General to present a report in connection with his visit to Israel, and the other is on the paragraph expressing condemnation for the violence of October 8. (Reads the text, in halting English.) (S)

The President: It is on the language that deals with the Secretary General making a "recommendation on ways and means for ensuring the safety and protection of Palestinians under Israeli occupation" where we disagree with that text. That is the NAM paragraph. (S)

President Mitterrand: We can accept this language, but I also understand that this poses a problem for you, and so I am prepared to drop it. However, on the earlier paragraph expressing condemnation of the violence, there is language which we cannot accept. The British text says "including those committed by Israeli forces". This is not acceptable to me because it implies that the Israeli violence is secondary. In fact, it is the main point of the condemnation, not a subsidiary point. Language like this would pose a domestic political problem for me. Instead, the text ought to say "notably" or "particularly". (S)

The President: Let's make that change. I see what you mean. It makes sense to me; we accept it. Francois, I am very grateful to you. (S)

President Mitterrand: Each of us shares the same thought even though we have differences on tactics. Our common thought is that we cannot let the Arabs line up behind Saddam Hussein. We are prepared to make war on Saddam Hussein and, therefore, we cannot appear to be indulgent with Israel. (S)

The President: I would like to read the two paragraphs again just to be sure that we understand each other. (Reads both paragraphs.) (S)

President Mitterrand: Yes. (U)

The President: I will notify our UN representative right away, and if your UN representative gets instructions soon, we should be able to wrap up this resolution quickly. My sincere thanks. (S)

President Mitterrand: I will tell Roland Dumas to send instructions to our UN Ambassador. Good work! (S)

ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: BRENT SCOWCROFT
SUBJECT: Response to Ambassador Zappala

Purpose

To respond to Ambassador Zappala's incoming letter.

Background

Zappala has written you a letter underlining the high degree of support he has seen in Spain for your handling of the Gulf crisis. He also adds a note of personal support for you.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the letter to Ambassador Zappala at Tab A.

Dear Joe,

I appreciate your report on the positive reaction in Spain to our actions to counter Iraq's aggression, as well as your warm words of personal support.

With my best personal regards to you and Carole.

Sincerely,

The Honorable
Joseph Zappala
U.S. Ambassador to Spain
Madrid

THE AMBASSADOR

Dear Mr. President:

I have heard from many Ambassadors here how much they and their governments appreciate your handling of the Gulf Crisis, a view strongly shared by the Spanish. Prime Minister Gonzalez spoke for three hours in Parliament last week strongly defending Spain's support for U.N. sanctions and for the movement of U.S. forces through Spain.

Bob Mosbacher is here today and Dick Cheney comes in tomorrow. Their visits will help to underline the importance we attach to our relationship with Spain. Last Saturday, Colin Powell and John Galvin were in Madrid for a NATO meeting. They conveyed effectively how much we appreciate Spain's good help on Desert Shield.

In an aside, let me tell you what you've done for my golf game. After reading the article on your swing in Golf Digest I went out the next day, relaxed my grip, and shot the best round of my life - with two 2s. Thanks for the help.

Finally, in these critical days for our nation I want you to know how glad Carole and I are that you are in the White House. Know that you and Barbara are always in our thoughts and prayers.

Friendship,

J
Joseph Zappala
