THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telcon with Prime Minister Brian Mulroney of Canada on August 6, 1990 (U)

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Brian Mulroney, Prime Minister
Notetaker: Philip Zelikow, NSC Staff

DATE, TIME August 6, 1990, 10:07 - 10:10am EST
AND PLACE: The Oval Office

The President: I had a long shot of an idea. We're meeting this afternoon with Margaret Thatcher and Manfred Woerner. Perhaps you could come down and have supper with me, or have lunch tomorrow at the White House. You've been so helpful with Ozal and everything else, I thought it just might be worth doing. If not, we can do it another time this week. Or we can just keep in touch by phone. I just thought, you've been with us shoulder to shoulder. It's Canada's business, and you're just an hour away.
(C)

Prime Minister Mulroney: That sounds very helpful. Is Margaret coming in today? (U)

The President: She's coming through on her way to the funeral. There is no pressing agenda, but there is a lot to talk about. Her remarks yesterday were very good. Come on down and bring who you want. (U)

Prime Minister Mulroney: I'll call you back. We're talking about tonight? (U)

The President: Right. Supper at 7:00, and we might even give you a drink at 6:30. (U)

Prime Minister Mulroney: I'll be right back to you. (U)

Dear Mary Kay:

As you begin your new assignment at the Department of State, let me thank you for your service with the NSC, particularly during this past year. I know from Bob Blackwill as well as my own observation how greatly the European Directorate relied on your energy, dedication, and skill during a period of extraordinary challenge and importance. In addition to our thanks, you can take with you the satisfaction of being part of an historic period in our country's foreign policy and the certain knowledge of a job well done.

We are delighted with your well-deserved promotion and know you will rise to this new challenge as you have to past ones. On behalf of all of us at the NSC, I wish you every success.

Sincerely,

Brent Scowcroft

SUBJECT: Kreisky Funeral

Please pass to the General.

We are working with Presidential Personnel and State's White House Liaison on a Presidential delegation to attend the August 7 funeral of former Austrian Chancellor Bruno Kreisky. Mindful of Kreisky's prominence in Europe and beyond (notwithstanding the difficulties he occasionally caused us) and the seniority of other foreign delegations, we feel the President should be represented at a fairly senior level. The Austrians are issuing no formal invitations to foreign leaders, but they have "notified" the former U.S. Presidents whose terms coincided with Kreisky's -- Nixon, Ford, Carter -- as well as Kissinger and Ted Kennedy. Vranitzky will host; Waldheim will be invisible.

Presidential Personnel will sort of the domestic politics of the selection; our concern from the national security perspective is that the President be represented at an appropriately senior level -- if not by one of those named above, then by a cabinet member. (Former Ambassador Grunwald has agreed to go, but he alone would be conspicuously junior to the other foreign heads of delegation.)

Please let us know if you have different or additional guidance.

SUBJECT: Kreisky Funeral

State recommends, and we concur, that a Presidential delegate be named to attend the August 7 funeral of former Austrian Chancellor Bruno Kreisky. Given the seniority of other foreign delegations, we recommend that the President be represented at an appropriately senior level -- if not by Henry Kissinger or one of the former Presidents already notified by the Austrian Government, then by a cabinet officer. We have already been working with Presidential Personnel and understand that Chase Untermeyer will send a formal recommendation to the President August 2.

RECOMMENDATION

That you authorize us to relay your concurrence in a Presidential delegation of cabinet rank.

MEMORANDUM FOR BRENT SCOWCROFT
THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Kreisky Funeral

The Government of Austria will conduct a "state funeral" for former Chancellor Dr. Bruno Kreisky on Tuesday, August 7. Formal invitations have been issued to resident chiefs of mission. Although no invitations will be issued to official representatives from abroad, numerous former colleagues of Kreisky are planning to attend, including Czechoslovak Prime Minister Calfa, French Foreign Minister Dumas, EC President Delors, a large West German delegation to include Foreign Minister Genscher, SPD Chairman Vogel, and former Federal Chancellor Brandt, the Belgian Vice Premier, President Soares of Portugal, the Deputy Prime Minister of the Netherlands, the Foreign Minister of Switzerland, both the Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of Sweden, Secretary General Klibi of the Arab League, Kim Dae Jong of South Korea, and possibly Kings Hussein (Jordan) and Hassan (Morocco). The British Embassy had recommended that the UK be represented by the resident ambassador but is currently thinking of adding one or more other dignitaries. Arafat, with whom Kreisky enjoyed a close relationship, will attend. Qadhafi may attend as well. The Government of Italy has indicated it will be represented, and Hungarian Prime Minister Antall will likely attend. Soviet representation has not yet been confirmed.

Chancellor Vranitsky will be the formal host for the funeral. Brandt, in his capacity as leader of the Socialist International, will eulogize Dr. Kreisky. President Waldheim's role will be minimal, and contact with him will be avoidable.

Michael J. Habib, Charge d'Affaires a.i., will accept the formal invitation. In addition, we understand that the Austrians have notified Presidents Nixon, Ford and Carter, Senator Edward Kennedy, and Henry A. Kissinger. We recommend that a Presidential delegate of cabinet or sub-cabinet level be sent. We have cleared this with Ambassador-designate Huffington.
