THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telcon with Pope John Paul II

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Pope John Paul II
Interpreter: None
Notetaker: Beth Sanner

DATE, TIME August 13, 1992, 11:15 - 11:17 a.m. EDT
AND PLACE: Oval Office

The President: Hello, your Excellency.

The Pope: Hello, Mr. President.

The President: I am just calling to thank you for taking my call. I wanted to tell you that Barbara and I are thinking about you and hope you are feeling well and to wish you a speedy recovery.

The Pope: Oh, very grateful.

The President: How are you feeling?

The Pope: So, I am still slowly better, slowly better. Better after the operation. I'm slowly better.

The President: Please take care of yourself, I know how active you are. We are all praying for you.

The Pope: Very grateful, very grateful.

The President: Are you out and about or are you confined to your room?

The Pope: It was for me a great happiness to have so many prayers.

The President: Well, we wish all the best for you for the future. I wanted to make this call sooner, but the doctors said that the time wasn't right. Please accept Barbara's and my respect and love.

The Pope: Thank you once again. Prayers for you and all your family and United States.

The President: Thank you for that. I hope we can talk again before long.

The Pope: Especially grateful of visit by you to Poland for the funeral of Paderewski. Wonderful, wonderful. Great event.

The President: I was very moved by the ceremony. Poland is in some trouble, and we are trying to be as helpful to Poland as possible.

The Pope: Mr. President, God bless America.

The President: Thank you.
