The President: Helmut, how are you? (U)

Chancellor Kohl: I'm back in Bonn because of events in Moscow. Then I'll go back. This is having a tremendous effect. I hope the new rulers will be sensible enough to understand there can be no relapse into early policies. (S)

The President: I agree. I'm gong to have a press conference. I'll say I spoke with you. I will say:

- We won't retreat from our commitment to our principles.
- Constitutional treatment is needed.
- Gorbachev's policies are important. (S)

Chancellor Kohl: We all must make the same basic demands. (1) All international agreements observed. (2) The policy of disarmament and arms control must continue. (3) They can only get help if they respect human rights. (4) We all have great respect for Gorbachev. (S)

As a German, we appreciate what he did for us. We should mention that he is in good health. (S)

The President: We are on the same wavelength. (S)
Let's stay in touch. (U)
